

Registration Form - Muslim Youth Camp at Dar al Islam in Abiquiu, New Mexico Sunday June 13 - Saturday June 19, 2010

The purpose of the Camp is to enrich and strengthen the hearts, minds and bodies of American teenagers. B'idhni'Llah we will achieve this through education, spiritual training, reflection, and teamwork, both on site and during hiking and other outdoor activities in the surrounding areas.

The Camp aims to bring the participants closer to Allah (SWT), foster ties of brotherhood and sisterhood, and increase knowledge in matters of Islamic worship and behavior. The program includes lectures, dhikr sessions, group reflections on the Qur'an and Hadith & individual introspection, inspirational readings, arts and craft activities, and nature treks through pristine wilderness. The camp fee is $350 per participant until May 21, and $450 thereafter. Refunds (minus $100/camper) will be issued only until May 21. Registration fee covers the program, halal meals, lodging, all materials, and transportation to/from Albuquerque airport. (See very important Travel Information below. Do not make travel arrangements until you have read this information!) Accommodations at the camp are dormitory style. Brothers and sisters are housed separately. This is a cooperative camp, i.e. participants will help with food set up & clean up, and general cleanliness of the camp. Space is limited, so it is important that you register as soon as possible. Confirmation will be sent to you upon receipt of payment.
